

O'CONNELL COLLEGE PREPARATORY SCHOOL

SYLLABUS FOR THEOLOGY II

INSTRUCTOR

Mrs. Suzanne Hogan
Email: Suzanne.hogan@oconnellprep.com

MATERIALS

3 ring binder
4 pocket dividers(optional)
notebook paper
pencil
pens
spiral (one subject)
colored pencils

TEXTBOOK

Understanding the Scriptures – The Didache Series
The New American Bible – Saint Joseph Edition

GRADING POLICY

Homework and classwork will count as 30% of the quarterly grade, quizzes will count as 30% of the quarterly grade, and tests will count as 40% of the quarterly grade. Essays may count under any of the three categories. The retreat counts as a test grade and attendance is required.
Your 25 community service hours count as your final Exam grade.

CLASSROOM RULES

1. Stay seated. Tardy at bell if not seated.
2. No food or drink in the classroom. (Items will be stored in trashcan for your convenience.)
3. No cell phones. (I see them, you lose them...actually you will turn them in as you enter.)
4. Follow your student hand book procedures.

COURSE CONTENT

Introduction to God's revelation of His Love throughout salvation history and the Catholic approach to Scripture. Topics covered will include: the relationship between Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition, the role of the Magisterium in the interpretation of Scripture, inspiration, inerrancy, canonicity, the senses of Scripture, methods of Biblical interpretation, the centrality of the covenant, and a survey of the Old and New Testament. Emphasis will be placed on how to use and read the Bible within the tradition of the Catholic Church. You will use the Bible daily. Masses are a part of Theology.